ICH-THUS

Jesus Christ, Son of God, Savior

Pastoral Perspectives for December 2018

Grace and peace to you from God the Father of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ in the Holy Spirit.

You may know that I am a fan of football (a.k.a. soccer). My favourite team in England is called the Wolverhampton Wanderers; they are a team from the midlands of England which started in 1887 as St. Luke's FC.

Historically, this city was a major part of the industrial revolution and because of the smoke and flames the area was nicknamed the "black country"; it looked very much like Pittsburgh did when the steel mills were running twenty-four, seven.

The motto for Wolves team is, "Out of Darkness Cometh Light". This beautiful motto reminds me of the Gospel of St. John 1:5 "The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it".

Our church was blessed to have a wedding on Saturday October 27th. That day we prepared the church, had an incredible service where God was present and blessed the marriage. After this joyous celebration, as we were cleaning, we heard the news from Pittsburgh about the shooting at the Tree Of Life Synagogue. The reality was that darkness came out through the horrific murder of innocent people in a house of God. It is now known as the worst shooting in the United States against the Jewish people of America.

The Gospel of St. John was addressing the reality of the world- it is estranged from God and is moving further away from Him daily. The beautiful wording of St. John's Gospel is all about 'the light verses the darkness of this world'. As the season of Advent begins on December 2nd (Hanukkah as well), we remember to light candles to shine and banish the darkness of this world as we await the coming of the Saviour to this broken world.

Paul Gerhardt (1607-76) composed the beautiful hymn "O Lord, How Shall I Meet You" (ELW 241). The question that the pastor and hymn writer wanted to ask is, how will we receive Jesus who is expected to arrive! How will we prepare ourselves for the coming of our Lord?

The light has come into the world in the Word of God that is Jesus the Christ in the flesh and the darkness has not overcome it! Christ is the Light of the world! Nothing and no one can take away the holiness of the day where the young couple declared their love for each other before their friends and families and before God. Those who worshipped at the Tree of Life Synagogue that Saturday will also be remembered as devout followers of God who were murdered for their faith and no one can take that away from them! As people seem more divided each day on all sorts of topics, as anger sparks in mere seconds and as the word "hate" has become the norm, we can see the truth that the threat of darkness is all around us.

And yet, we have the opportunity in this part of the world to truly live out and follow our baptismal vows that were made in our infancy; "Let your light so shine before others that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven" (St. Matthew 5:15-16).

Light in the darkness is a wonderful metaphor and theme for this time of year as the time change now brings darkness upon us an hour earlier. While the lights of the Christmas trees, the lights of the Advent candles, and the lights on the houses are lovely they are dim in comparison to the Light of Christ that He brings into the world.

Now more than ever, it is time for you and I to let the Light of Christ shine brightly in the darkness of this world by preparing our hearts and minds for the coming of the King of Kings! Now is the time to be more caring and loving to our neighbours, to the strangers we will encounter and most importantly love the Lord your God above all else!

The motto of the Wolverhampton Wanderers Football Club reminds us to act in this world by following the Word of God which tells us that Jesus Christ truly is the light of the world and by doing so, it is possible that "out of darkness cometh light" when we are the hands and feet of Christ in the world and shine light into the darkest parts of it in Jesus' name.

Amen!

Grace and peace to you from God the Father of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ in the Holy Spirit.

This Christmas the world will celebrate the 200 year gift of the hymn 'Stille Nacht' or 'Silent Night' which was written in 1818.

Joseph Mohr, the 26 year old assistant priest in Oberndorf, Austria, was walking home late one night after a home visit and as he crested the heights of the Totenberg, which overlooks the village of Oberndorf, which is just outside Salzburg, Austria, he paused.....

In the silence of the night, in the starry splendour of the winter sky and with the murmur of the Salzach River as it flowed, the young priest was inspired to put pen to paper and by 4 a.m. in the morning the lyrics to the hymn were complete!

The next day Mohr went to musician Franz Gruber's home in Arnsdorf to give him a copy of what he had written. Gruber began to compose the music for the hymn and that very night the two men gathered with the parish choir and sang it at the village Christmas Festival.

The reason for the use of the guitar over the organ was the fact that the organ had broken down. This Christmas Eve service, we will at First Lutheran hear once again 200 years later the beautiful hymn once again played as it was originally performed on an acoustic guitar.

How the hymn actually spread out from the little sleepy Austrian village to the rest of the Tyrol was through the organ repairman, Karl Mauracher of Zillerthal; he heard it sung and played by Mohr and Gruber and he took a copy with him. By 1831 Franz Alscher in Leipzig heard it sung by a quartet from Zillerthal and the next year the same quartet performed it in Dresden; these two Lutheran and Roman Catholic cities in Germany were instrumental in making it a worldwide beloved hymn when a man named Friese then copied it down.

We need to remember that this hymn was not sung during the mass but was outside the church. That is the real reason why the music was originally for guitar and not for the organ! The story of the mouse chewing on the organ is an old familiar one but of no historical truth. The hymn arrived on these shore in New York in 1839.

How significant was this beautiful Christmas hymn? Well it is considered to be the song that stopped the war! In WW1 the British and German armies were dug in the trenches and when a German soldier started singing aloud Stille Nacht on Dec. 25th, in 1914. A British Soldier then began to sing the hymn in English and soon both sides were singing in a massive choir! Then the unthinkable happened; a British soldier rose up and put his hands up in the air, the Germans that were watching him saw that he was unarmed and so they responded in kind and soon without orders from any generals the soldiers walked towards each other and created their own truce! They shared rations and showed off their photos of loved ones back home and they even played a football (soccer) match right there between the two trenches! If you want to see an amazing re-enactment of this true historical event just Google the Sainsbury Christmas Ad for 2014 and watch the video, as it is very moving.

The power that music has upon people was well documented by Martin Luther when he said, "Next to the Word of God, the noble art of music is the greatest treasure in the world."

So please, come and join us this Christmas Eve and hear how the hymn Silent Night was first played 200 years ago.

Peace in our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ

Faithful Messengers

Michael is one of only two angels whose names are given to us in Scripture---the other being Gabriel. And Michael is the only one of the two called “archangel” (In Scripture). Messengers (angels) are stewards of their messages, and stewards must be found faithful (1 Corinthians 4:2). May we be faithful to deliver the Gospel of God to those who need His love and comfort.

The Bible speaks of angels who guard and protect but does not explicitly say that every believer has a personal guardian angel. There are only two verses that may refer to personal guardian angels: “his angel” (in the case of Peter---Acts 12:15) and “their angels” (in the case of children---Matthew 18:10). Regarding children, Jesus’ words are more authoritative but still not explicit. So we are left with “perhaps” when it comes to personal angels.

Angels are sent by God to care for His spiritual children (Hebrews 1:14). Take comfort---you are watched over and cared for by the angels of heaven. Yet Michael the archangel, in contending with the devil, when he disputed about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him a reviling accusation, but said, “The Lord rebuke you!” (Jude 1:9).

According to the Bible, God’s holy angels encourage us more than we know. An angel encouraged Hagar in the desert (Genesis 16); Gideon under the tree in Ophrah (Judges 6); Elijah at Horeb (1 Kings 19); Daniel praying in Babylon (Daniel 9); Jesus on the Mount of Temptation (Matthew 4); Cornelius in Caesarea (Acts 10); and Paul on a sinking ship (Acts 27).

We may not audibly hear the voice of an angel, but who knows the multitude of ways they can encourage us with unseen strength just when we need it?

Now in the Christmas season, it is important to remember the significance of Our Lord in our lives and what this season’s real meaning is to us as Christians. The landmine of pride can tear a gaping hole in the life of a person who yields to its folly, because it tempts us to take our eyes off God and place them on ourselves and our gifts and good cheer. It’s a reminder that we should never seek to be above others but we’re to seek to serve as Christ served.

If you have gifts, accomplishments, honors, blessings, and influence, make them matters of thanksgiving and recognize them as gifts from God to use in the service of Christ. Keep your eyes on Jesus and live a life of humble thanksgiving and Christ-centered service.

Thank God for His angelic encouragers!

“An angel is a spiritual creature created by God without a body for the service of Christendom”.

Have a blessed, Merry Christmas and Holy Holiday Season!

Thoughts and Tidbits December 2018

Here we are coming into our Holy Holidays, wishing all a blessed Merry Christmas. Here are some poems and thoughts submitted by our sister Joanne Reck she wished to share:

Christmas waves a
Magic wand over
This world, and behold,
Everything is softer and more Beautiful.

The love between Mother and Daughter
Is a special kind of love,
Beautiful, strong and forever,
A true blessing from above.

Through life and to eternity
It remains forever true
To guide, to hold, and inspire
A promise from me to you.

A master can tell you what he expects of you
A teacher, though awakens your own Expectations.

Security Report

Greetings Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I have been asked to head up a Safety Committee for the Church. In light of evolving events in our secular world, council has decided to be Pro-Active in enhancing the safety of building. As most of you know the building is quite old and has its problems and quirks.

In November, we had safety walk-through's done by the Washington Fire and Police Departments. They made suggestions for improving the safety and well being of the congregation. Council is going to start moving on some of those, shortly. Some of the recommendations are simple and easy to implement, such as education for our members. We will be focusing on those first.

We will be having CPR and First Aid classes conducted at the church. There is another class that was recently hosted by Trinity Area School District. It's called "Stop the Bleed". According to The Department of Homeland Security; "Stop the Bleed is a national awareness campaign and call-to-action. Stop the Bleed is intended to cultivate grassroots efforts that encourage bystanders to become trained, equipped, and empowered to help in an emergency before professional help arrives".

We will also be having fire drills following Sunday services. These will be announced ahead of time. As you may know, the Pastor is a Volunteer Fireman. He would like the congregation to exit the building through doors that you may not normally use, according to where you sit.

There are other physical improvements that need to be made to the building (such as smoke detectors, fire/security systems and fire extinguishers). Council will be addressing these concerns as they find the resources available.

The best thing that can be done by us, as a church, is to be mentally prepared. Mental preparation will give you the ability to react with or without the tools you might need in a stressful situation. The more prepared we are, the less surprised we'll be.

REMEMBER HIS LOVE FOR US

As Christians, we are different than the rest of the world in that our heart bears the seal of God's property. If we know God and name Jesus Christ as our savior, then we are able to depart from iniquity. God's Word says in 1 Peter 1:16, "you shall be holy, for I am holy." Not only have we accepted His mercy and grace for the forgiveness of our sins, but we also must submit to His authority, His doctrines, truth, and perfect will. He is our firm foundation.

That foundation is built on God's unconditional love for us. He loved us when He formed us in our mother's womb; He loved us long before we had any thoughts of Him. Romans 5:8 says, "But God shows His love for us through the sacrifice of His Son Jesus Christ. Then, He tells us in the following verses to demonstrate our love for Him through our obedience:

If you love Me, you will keep My commandments. Whoever has My commandments and keeps them, he is who loves Me. And he who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and manifest Myself to him. (John 14:15-21)

However, for us to live in accordance to His model, we must first understand God's love before we can truly be obedient to His commands. The Christian life is not easy; it takes intentional effort and work. It is only possible through the power of the Holy Spirit within us. As it was necessary that Christ should take upon Him our flesh, so it is necessary that we should receive from Him His Spirit.

I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me and the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me. (Galatians 2:20)

Even as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before Him. (Ephesians 1:4)

If My people who are called by My name humble themselves, and pray and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and heal their land. (II Chronicles 7:14)

The world cannot see into our hearts. But they can observe our actions and judge whether our lives are in alignment with our belief in Jesus Christ.

IT TAKES JUST ONE

It takes just one candle
to spread a ray of light,
to split the darkness with its flame
and quell the black of night.

It takes just one whisper to speak to God in prayer,
to draw near to His presence and find peace and comfort there.

It takes just one Savior
to save the world in need,
a holy God wrapped in flesh
to heal, to guide, to lead...

It takes just one candle to spark the memory of the night the Light of heaven came to change our lives with love.

SHANNON FAMILY

Jerry, Christy and their children are living in Lancaster, PA. Their plans are to remain in the US and explore different options of service.

They are committed to a life of service and trust God to lead them where He wants them to serve.

Their oldest son, Joshua, is 19 years old. He decided to wait to enter college and instead, joined a group called Friendship. This is an organization that helps people after a disaster such as hurricane, floods, fires, etc. He is serving in Syria aiding the refugees at the present time.

Jerry continues to be on the Board of Directors of Embracing Hope Ethiopia and is thankful for our Church's commitment to the two little girls we sponsor.

Please keep the family in your prayers.

Paul Gerhardt (Hymn-Writer)

Born: March 12, 1607 - Grafenhaynichen, near Wittenberg, Saxony-Anhalt, Germany

Died: May 27, 1676 - Lübben an der Spree, Spreewald, Germany

Biography

Paul Gerhardt was the son of Christian Gerhardt, Bürgermeister of Grafenhaynichen, near Wittenberg. He enrolled at the University of Wittenberg in 1628. In 1655, he married Anna Maria Barthold. He appears to have frequently preached in Berlin in the 1640's.

In 1651, Gerhardt was appointed, at the recommendation of the Berlin clergy, Lutheran Probst (chief pastor) at Mittenwalde, near Berlin. In 1657, Gerhardt returned to Berlin as third diaconus of St. Nicholas' church. However, Gerhardt became involved in the contest between Elector Friedrich Wilhelm (who was of the Reformed Church) and the Lutheran clergy of Berlin; Gerhardt was deposed from his office in February 1666, though he still remained in Berlin. In November 1668, he accepted the post of archidiaconus at Lübben an der Spree, was installed in June, 1669, and remained there till his death. The motto on his portrait at Lübben read Theologus in cribro Satanae versatus.

Paul Gerhardt's Testament

Paul Gerhardt prepared his "testament" his 70th birthday for his son. It offers insight into this important Lutheran writer of many great chorales..

Now that I have reached the 70th year of my life and also have the joyful hope that my dear, holy God will soon rescue me out of this world and lead me into a better life than I have had until now on earth, I thank Him especially for all His kindness and faithfulness which, from my mother's womb until the present hour, He has shown me in body and soul and in all that He has given me. Besides this, I ask Him from the bottom of my heart that when my hour comes He would grant me a happy departure, take my soul into His fatherly hands, and give my body a peaceful rest in the ground until the dear Last Day, when I, with all of my [family] who have been before me and also may remain after me, will reawake and behold my dear Lord Jesus Christ face to face, in whom I have believed but have not yet seen. To my only son whom I am leaving behind I leave few earthly goods, but with them I leave him an honorable name of which he will not have to be ashamed.

My son knows that from his tender childhood I have given him to the Lord my God as His possession, that he is to become a servant and preacher of His holy Word. He is to remain now in this and not turn away from it, even if he has only few good days in it. For the good Lord knows how to handle it and how sufficiently to replace external troubles with internal happiness of the heart and joy of the spirit.

Study holy theologiam [theology] in pure schools and at unfalsified universities and beware of the syncretists [those who mix religions or confessions], for they seek what is temporal and are faithful to neither God nor men. In your common life do not follow evil company but rather the will and command of your God. Especially: (1) Do nothing evil in the hope that it will remain secret, for nothing is spun so small that it is not seen in the light of day. (2) Outside of your office and vocation do not become angry. If you notice that anger has heated you up, remain still and speak not so much as a word until you have first prayed the Ten Commandments and the Christian Creed silently. (3) Be ashamed of the lusts of the flesh, and when you one day come to the years in which you can marry, then marry with God and with the good advice of pious, faithful, and sensible people. (4) Do good to people even if they have nothing with which to repay you, for the Creator of heaven and earth has long since repaid what humans cannot repay: when He created you, when He gave you His beloved Son, and when He accepted you in Holy Baptism as His child and heir. (5) Flee from greed as from hell. Be satisfied with what you have earned with honor and a good conscience, even if it is not all too much. But if the good Lord gives you something more, ask Him to preserve you from the burdensome misuse of temporal goods.

In summary: Pray diligently, study something honorable, live peacefully, serve honestly, and remain unmoved in your faith and confessing. If you do this, you too will one day die and depart from this world willingly, joyfully, and blessedly. Amen.
