

FIRST LUTHERAN CHURCH

Ash Wednesday Service

Holy Communion 7:00 PM

February 17, 2021

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of the forty-day season of Lent. Its name is taken from the ancient biblical tradition of using ashes as a sign of repentance and human mortality. We come together tonight in humble and honest reflection on our own sinfulness, trusting in the forgiveness of our merciful Lord and in the promise that He has won for us in the cross.

(the congregation enters in silence)

Opening Reading: Psalm 51 (read responsively)

¹Have mercy on me, O God, according to Your loving kindness; in Your great compassion blot out my offenses.

²Wash me through and through from my wickedness and cleanse me from my sin.

³For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me.

⁴Against You only have I sinned and done what is evil in Your sight.

⁵And so You are justified when You speak and upright in Your judgment.

⁶Indeed, I have been wicked from my birth, a sinner from my mother's womb.

⁷For behold, You look for truth deep within me, and will make me understand wisdom secretly.

⁸Purge me from my sin, and I shall be pure; wash me, and I shall be clean in deed.

⁹Make me hear of joy and gladness, that the body You have broken may rejoice.

¹⁰Hide Your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquities.

¹¹Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me.

¹²Cast me not away from Your presence and take not Your Holy Spirit from me.

¹³Give me the joy of Your saving help again and sustain me with Your bountiful Spirit.

¹⁴I shall teach Your ways to the wicked, and sinners shall return to You.

¹⁵Deliver me from death, O God, and my tongue shall sing of Your righteousness, O God of my salvation.

¹⁶Open my lips, O Lord, and my mouth shall proclaim Your praise.

¹⁷Had You desired it, I would have offered sacrifice, but You take no delight in burnt offerings.

¹⁸The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, You will not despise.

¹⁹Be favorable and gracious to Zion, and rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.]

*ELW HYMN #592

Just As I Am

*Call to Worship:

P: Return to the Lord your God, for He is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love. (Joel 2:13)

C: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen

P: Brothers and sisters, our Lord Jesus said: "If any would come after Me, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow Me." (Mark 8:34)

C: Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for You are with me. (Psalm 23:4)

P: Let us lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus—the pioneer and perfecter of our faith — Who for the sake of the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken His seat at the right hand of the throne of God. (Hebrews 12:1-2)

C: Lord, we believe; help us in our unbelief. (Mark 9:24)

Prayers of Confession and Repentance: (please kneel)

P: Let us draw near to God with an honest heart, confessing our sins to God the Father, and appealing to Him, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to grant us forgiveness.

(silence is observed for reflection and self-examination)

P: Almighty God,

C: We confess to You that we are by nature sinful and unclean, and that we have sinned against You in thought, word and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved You with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

P: We have received Your many blessings with a lack of gratitude; and have failed to be good stewards of Your Creation.

C: Have mercy on us, Lord.

P: We have followed our own selfish will and ways, and have failed to be Your trusting and obedient servants.

C: Have mercy on us, Lord.

P: We have not forgiven others, as we have been forgiven, and have failed to be Your witnesses in the world.

C: Have mercy on us, Lord.

P: We confess to You, Lord, all our unfaithfulness — our fear, our anger, our pride, and our trust in our own righteousness.

C: Accept our repentance, Lord.

P: We confess to You, Lord, our lack of concern for the needs of others, and our sense of entitlement to all we possess.

C: Accept our repentance, Lord.

P: We confess to You, Lord, our negligence in worship, and our rejection of Your Word in our lives.

C: Accept our repentance, Lord.

P: Create in us a clean heart, O God, and put a new and right spirit within us.

C: Cast us not away from Your presence, and take not Your Holy Spirit from us. Give us the joy of Your saving help again, and sustain us with Your bountiful Spirit.
Amen.

The Imposition of Ashes (please be seated)

P: As children of a fallen humanity, each of us shares in the consequences of human sin. In the words that the Lord first spoke to Adam, He not reminds us all: "By the sweat of your brow you shall eat bread, until you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken; you are dust, and to dust you shall return." (Genesis 3:19)

Therefore, face-to-face, in the presence of God, we offer our confession in the spirit of our ancestor Job, who prayed:

C: I had heard You be the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees You; therefore I despise myself, and repent in dust and ashes. (Job 42:5-6)

P: As a sign of repentance, I now ask those who wish to do so, to come forward to receive the mark of the cross in ashes upon their brow or hand.

(To each: "Remember that you are dust and to dust you shall return.")

*The Promise of Christ:

P: Accomplish in us, O God, the work of Your salvation.

C: that we may show forth Your glory in the world.

P: By the cross and passion of Your Son, our Lord,

C: bring us with all Your saints to the joy of His resurrection.

P: In the mercy of Almighty God, Jesus Christ was given to die for you, and for His sake, God forgives you all your sins. By His Holy Spirit, may He grant you true repentance, that you may live with Him in righteousness and purity forever; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

*The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Leaning On The Everlasting Arms

Prediction of the Passion

P: Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem...

And the Son of man will be delivered to the chief priests and the scribes, who will condemn Him to death...

And they will hand Him over to the Gentiles who will mock Him and scourge Him, and finally, they will crucify Him...

But on the third day, He will rise.

Congregational Announcements

Holy Communion

We come to the table today at the invitation of the Lord, receiving the body and blood of Christ for the forgiveness of our sins. Baptized and Confirmed Christians who share this faith and wish to join us at the table are welcome. Young children may be brought forward for a blessing.

The Imposition of Ashes

Throughout the history of God's people, ashes have always been symbolic of God's condemnation of sin, and of human guilt and repentance. Biblically, ashes are also a sign of our mortality. As we are reminded in our funeral liturgy, we shall all return to the earth from which we were made. "Ashes to ashes, dust to dust..."

The Flowers on the altar for Ash Wednesday are presented for the glory of God in preparation for the sacrifice of His Only Son, Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

The Lay Reader is Dennis Schmidt.

Welcome to our Visitors!

The people of this congregation welcome you as you join us in worship on this Ash Wednesday. Please sign the register, located in the narthex. If you have any questions or are interested in hearing about membership, please see the pastor or contact the Church Office.
