

FIRST LUTHERAN CHURCH

GOOD FRIDAY

April 2, 2021

1:00 pm

(The congregation enters in silence.)

Use these words to meditate upon as you prepare for worship:

We must note in the first place that Christ by His suffering not only saved us from the devil, death, and sin, but also that His suffering is an example, which we are to follow in our suffering...For God has appointed that we should not only believe in the crucified cross, but also be crucified with Him...what is needed is to hold fast and submit oneself to it, as I have said, namely, that one know that we must suffer, in order that we may thus be conformed to Christ, and that it cannot be otherwise, that everyone must have his (her) cross and suffering. When one knows this it is the more easy and bearable, and one can comfort oneself by saying: Very well, if I want to be a Christian, I must also wear the colors of the court; the dear Christ issues no others in His court; suffering must be there...none should dictate or choose his own cross and suffering, but rather when it comes, patiently bear and suffer it.

—Martin Luther, Sermon at Coberg 1530

The Psalmody of the Day (read responsively)

Psalm 22

<sup>1</sup>My God, my God, why have You forsaken me? and are so far from my cry and from the words of my distress?

<sup>2</sup>O my God, I cry in the daytime, but You do not answer; by night as well, but I find no rest.

<sup>3</sup>Yet You are the Holy One, enthroned upon the praises of Israel.

<sup>4</sup>Our forefathers put their trust in You; they trusted, and You delivered them.

<sup>5</sup>They cried out to You and were delivered; they trusted in You and were not put to shame.

<sup>6</sup>But as for me, I am a worm and no man, scorned by all and despised by the people.

<sup>7</sup>All who see me laugh me to scorn; they curl their lips and wag their heads, saying,

<sup>8</sup>“He trusted in the Lord; let Him deliver him; let Him rescue him, if he delights in Him.”

<sup>9</sup>Yet You are He who took me out of the womb, and kept me safe upon my mother’s breast.

<sup>10</sup>I have been entrusted to You ever since I was born; You were my God when I was still in my mother’s womb.

<sup>11</sup>Be not far from me, for trouble is near, and there is none to help.

<sup>13</sup>They open wide their jaws at me, like a ravening and a roaring lion.

my heart within my breast is melting wax.

<sup>15</sup>My mouth is dried out like a potsherd; my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth; and You have laid me in the dust of the grave.

<sup>16</sup>Packs of dogs close me in, and gangs of evildoers circle around me; they pierce my hands and my feet. I can count all my bones.

<sup>17</sup>They stare and gloat over me;*

they divide my garments among them; they cast lots for my clothing.

<sup>18</sup>Be not far away, O Lord; You are my strength; hasten to help me.

<sup>19</sup>Save me from the sword, my life from the power of the dog.

<sup>20</sup>Save me from the lion’s mouth, my wretched body from the horns of wild bulls.

<sup>21</sup>I will declare Your name to my brethren; in the midst of the congregation I will praise You.

(continue on next page)

<sup>22</sup>Praise the Lord, you that fear Him; stand in awe of Him, O offspring of Israel; all you of Jacob's line, give glory.

<sup>23</sup>For He does not despise nor abhor the poor in their poverty; neither does He hide His face from them;* but when they cry to Him He hears them.

<sup>24</sup>My praise is of Him in the great assembly; I will perform my vows in the presence of those who worship Him.

<sup>25</sup>The poor shall eat and be satisfied, and those who seek the Lord shall praise Him:
"May your heart live forever!"

<sup>26</sup>All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the Lord, and all the families of the nations shall bow before Him.

<sup>27</sup>For kingship belongs to the Lord; He rules over the nations.

<sup>28</sup>To Him alone all who sleep in the earth bow down in worship; all who go down to the dust fall before Him.

<sup>29</sup>My soul shall live for Him; my descendants shall serve Him; they shall be known as the Lord's forever.

<sup>30</sup>They shall come and make known to a people yet unborn the saving deeds that He has done.

77 FIRST TUNE

1. There is a green hill far a - way, With - out a cit - y wall,
2. We may not know, we can - not tell What pains he had to bear,

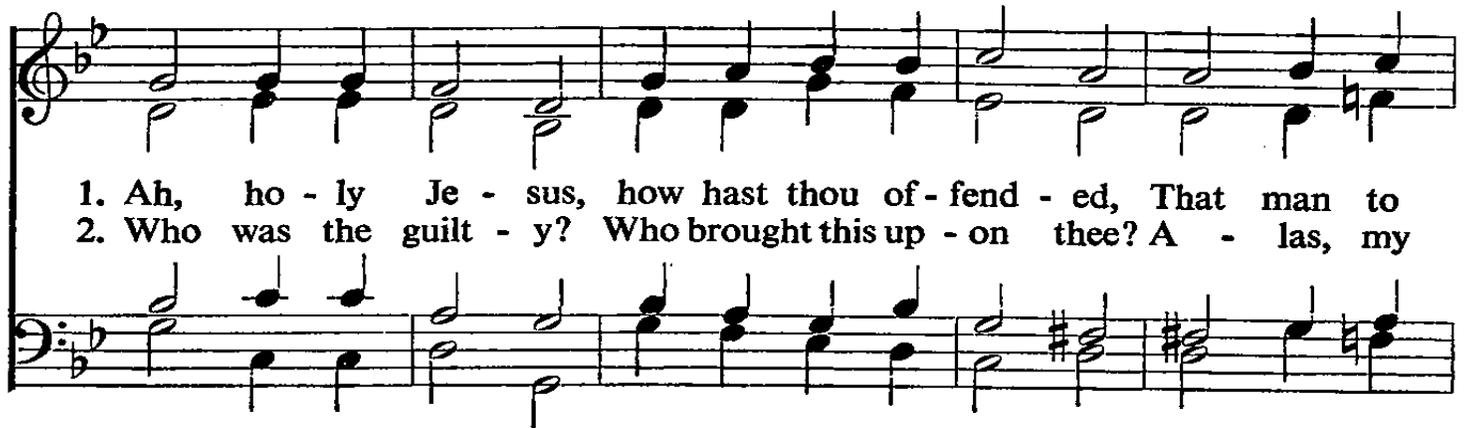

Where the dear Lord was cru - ci - fied, Who died to save us all.
But we be - lieve it was for us He hung and suf - fered there.

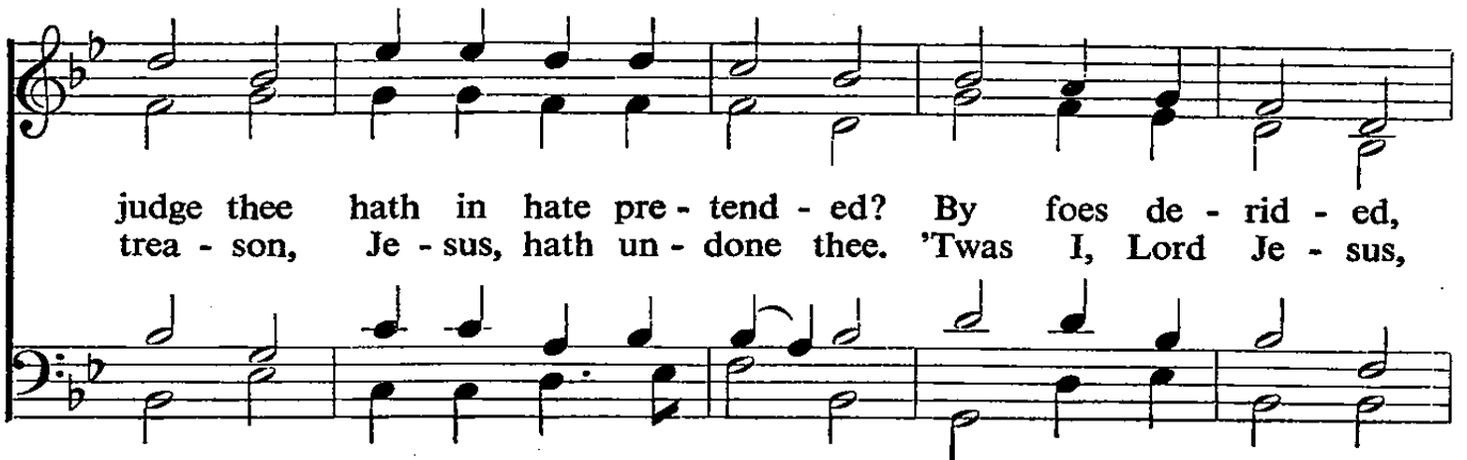

3 He died that we might be forgiven,
He died to make us good;
That we might go at last to heaven,
Saved by his precious Blood.

4 There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin,
He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven, and let us in.

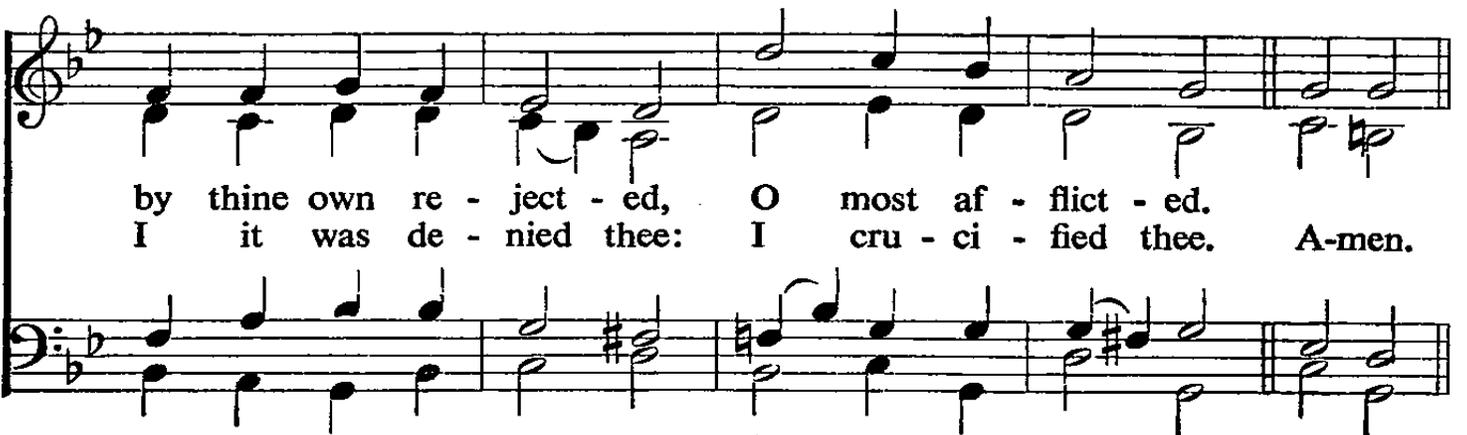

5 O dearly, dearly has he loved,
And we must love him too,
And trust in his redeeming Blood,
And try his works to do.

1. Ah, ho - ly Je - sus, how hast thou of - fend - ed, That man to
2. Who was the guilt - y? Who brought this up - on thee? A - las, my judge thee hath in hate pre - tend - ed? By foes de - rid - ed, by thine own re - ject - ed, O most af - flict - ed.

I it was de - nied thee: I cru - ci - fied thee. A-men.

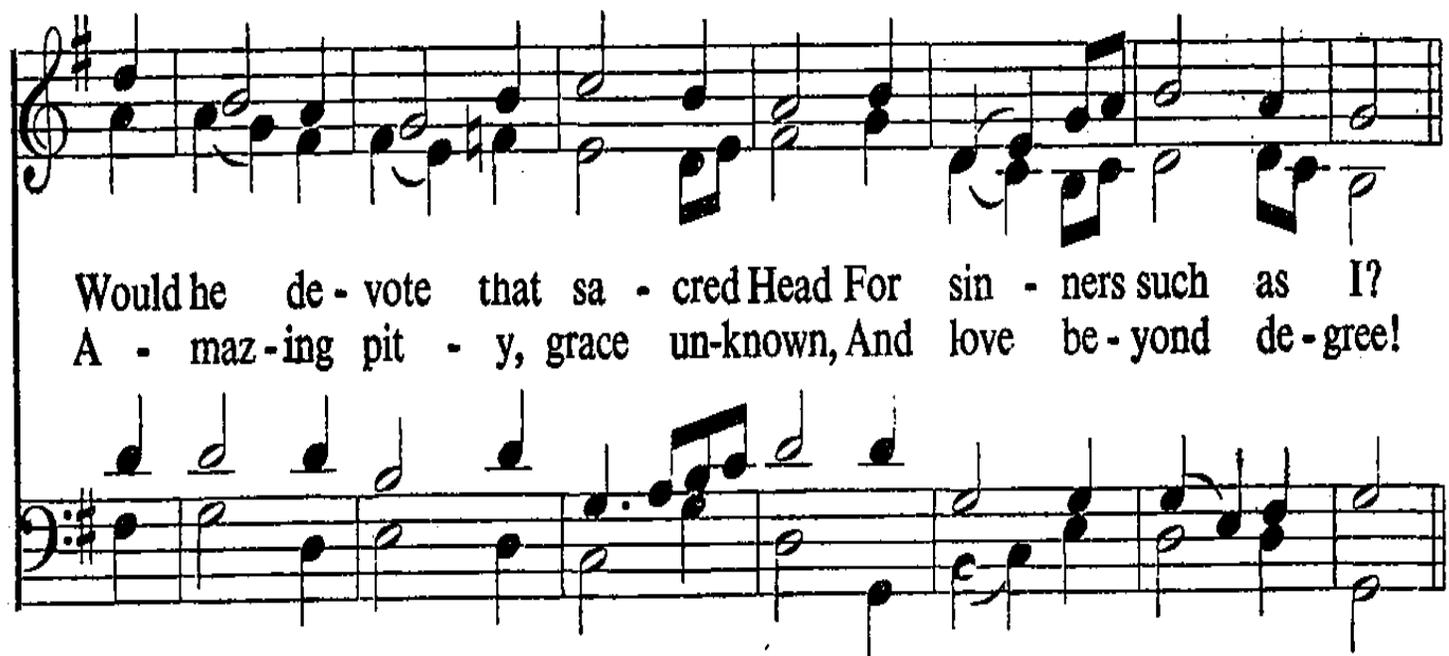

3 Lo, the good Shepherd for the sheep is offered;
The slave hath sinnèd, and the Son hath suffered;
For man's atonement, while he nothing heedeth,
God intercedeth.

4 For me, kind Jesus, was thine Incarnation,
Thy mortal sorrow, and thy life's oblation;
Thy death of anguish and thy bitter Passion,
For my salvation.

5 Therefore, kind Jesus, since I cannot pay thee,
I do adore thee, and will ever pray thee,
Think on thy pity and thy love unswerving,
Not my deserving. Amen.

1. A - las! and did my Sav - iour bleed, And did my Sov-ereign die?
2. Was it for sin that I had done He groaned up - on the tree?

Would he de - vote that sa - cred Head For sin - ners such as I?
A - maz - ing pit - y, grace un-known, And love be - yond de - gree!

3 Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut his glories in,
When Christ, the mighty Maker, died
For man, the creature's sin.

4 Thus might I hide my blushing face,
While his dear Cross appears;
Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
And melt mine eyes to tears.

5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe.
Here, Lord, I give myself away;
'Tis all that I can do.

Weekly Devotional

Good Friday - April 2, 2021

“Like a lamb that is led to the slaughter...” - Isaiah 53:7

God died today. Does it bother you? We killed God, and he let us do it, so that you and I might be spared from sin's awful consequences. He let us do it, so that we might be found in him, instead of lost to the devil. He let us do it, so that we might be forever redeemed instead of eternally damned. We killed him, and it couldn't happen any other way.

“Go!” “Suffer!” “Die!”—these are the words we must hear today. Because if he doesn't go, suffer, and die, he can't rise, and if he doesn't rise, you and I are still dead in trespasses and sins. This is what he was born to do. This is why the Word took on flesh. This is why the Father must forsake the Son, and in so doing, forsake himself. He has become our sin.

Behold the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. This is His Friday. When God created the universe, he called the sixth day “very good.” On that sixth day when God created humans in his image, was he already anticipating the restoration of that image in the death of Christ?

Behold the Passover Lamb – without spot or blemish – his blood smeared on the wood of Calvary. For where the blood is, Death passes over. Behold the Lamb! Jesus died at the same hour when all Passover lambs in Jerusalem were being slaughtered. As their cries rang out from the temple, the cry of God's Lamb rang out from the cross – “Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing.” A spear marks the exclamation point where blood and water flowed from his body. Water and blood. Baptism and Supper. For you.

He was made our sin, who knew no sin. He became the thief, the murderer, the adulterer, blasphemer, the slanderer. And in him, you became the righteousness of God. It's been called “the sweet swap,” “the happy exchange”! Jesus gets what we deserve, and we get what he deserves.

We preach Christ crucified, because if he is not crucified, then you're not baptized into his death, and there is no value in receiving his body and blood on Easter. But he was crucified, and you are baptized, and you will receive the very means of your salvation come Sunday morning. The disciples ran and hid. Don't do that. Watch. See how ugly your sin is. And be bothered. See how beautiful your Savior's love is. And be amazed. Amen.
